What's been happening at OSHC

Hi OSHC Families,

So much has been happening at OSHC – the Children are well and truly engaged. – what a creative bunch. We have seen a lot of collaborating and spontaneous creativity from them weeks; making up stories/plays/sets, wool knitting/various creations, learning new games, The children have engaged in many different discussion topics with educators such as; National Reconciliation Week, Australian Animal Fun Facts and World environment Day . The children's activities were based on these and we completed the following to celebrate/recognise these events which were; Aboriginal flag collage and Aboriginal style sand art, dot painting and aboriginal colouring ins for National Sorry Day. have been jam packed with a pretty wide variety of discussion topics and activities.

Till next time keep smiling and continue to watch this space! 😊👍
