

One day in a far off galaxy Zub zoomed through the stars in his spaceship. This was his first time he was allowed to fly the spaceship by himself.

Zub was an adventurous alien who loved to explore. He was purple with one eye and red spots. Zub was kind and sometimes a bit cheeky.

Zub was having so much fun on his adventure. He saw a shiny spaceship, brilliant constellations, green planets and pink space dolphins. Then Zub realised he wasn't in his part of the galaxy anymore, "Oh no!" he shouted, "Where am I?"

Then Zub saw something coming towards him! What is that he thought. "Hello," said the curious, pink Space Dolphin, "are you lost?" The friendly Space Dolphin offered to show him back to planet Flub. The Space Dolphin swam through the stars with Zub close behind all the way home.
